To better accommodate their customers, Wilson Office Supply has distribution centres across Canada and the United States with thousands of products in stock for next day delivery. Wilson Office Supply also offers installation services. Their national network of professional furniture installers enables Wilson Office Supply to service business' local, regional and national locations. Wilson Office Supply is a source for office supplies, furniture, printing, cleaning and breakroom supplies, promotional products, and much more.

The Technology Partner Solution

In the past, Wilson Office Supply relied on external hard drives to backup their data until a local fire forced owner Mike Wilson to weigh the possibilities of losing everything. Wilson Office Supply now joins the thousands of happy customers who rely on KineticCloud™ Backup to protect and secure its data with versioning restore and Continuous Data Protection assuring files are continuously and automatically protected and backed up to the Cloud.

Business Benefits

KineticCloud™ Backup keeps Wilson Office Supply data securely out of sight and out of mind so that employees can better focus on the core business. KineticCloud™ Backup is easy to install and the automated backup scheduling feature ensures that data is continuously backed up. Automated emails are sent to notify the users of any errors in backups. With KineticD™, Wilson Office Supply can rest assured that a local fire, or any other natural disaster, will never put Wilson Office Supply's data at risk.

KineticD™ also provides exceptional support to their customers to ensure that they have a positive experience. "The support staff is top notch. When we needed to delete old files from within the web portal and restore some important company documents, they were patient, precise and confident in helping us," said Mike Wilson, owner of Wilson Office Supply. The support staff is accessible by phone and email and is there to ensure that your data is kept safe and that customers have the utmost peace of mind.

Looking Forward

KineticD™ understands that moving to the cloud can be an intimidating process. KineticD™ CEO Jamie Brenzel states, "At KineticD™, we believe that small businesses deserve the same level of support and continuous data protection for their assets that large enterprises do. Feeling confident that their cloud storage provider is there when they need them is incredibly valuable to SMBs and enterprises alike". KineticD™ is pleased to be helping Wilson Office Supply protect their data and look forward to a long lasting relationship.
